Jennifer Johnson (Alto & Organizer)

Jennifer dreamed of singing in a gospel acappella group since she started listening to the men's quartet "Acappella" in the 80's. Her mother and father also sang professionally with the gospel group "His Loving Kindness" and were a great influence with music. She joined the Center Point Chorus (Sweet Adeline's) in college and fell in love with the close harmonies of barbershop style music. Now her dream has come true and hopes that God is glorified as well.

Kay Pickar (Soprano & MC )

Growing up with a variety of music, it wasn't hard to imagine that I'd still be singing. My mom played opera while I was in the crib, my dad played piano and accordion by ear, my grandparents loved Lawrence Welk. My sister and I used to jump around to a Barnum and Bailey Circus record they had. We were encouraged to take piano lessons and later band instruments. Always looking for an outlet for our music we were active in church, local theater productions and community groups.

Janice Grimes (Soprano II & Human Pitch Pipe)

Janice came from a musical family. Most of her family has been involved in either bands or singing solos. She always enjoys singing with them. As a little girl Janice dreamed to be a singer for the Lord. She sang and played guitar in her bedroom for many years afraid that someone would hear her. Slowly getting over that fear, she sang for churches and different events. When her friend Jennifer approached her with the idea of singing together and getting an acappella trio together, she decided to go for it. This is a dream come true. Being able to sing for the One who died for us is a blessing that cannot be described. She also cherishes the friendship that she has with Jennifer and Kay.
